1. I give you me, so tenderly now, in all things -- so tender, so tenderly being, my tender who love me, who think not of another but who think my words, coming into them to know them, and be them unafraid of me, and being my word to word their word with mine and word others with theirs that one become whole word complete in the earth and farther earths going to now, being not afraid of going to, here and yon beyond the starry lit skies, of o're, and over the past.

2. And centuries not fallen, yet; but coming into view, a plain view of your sight, of your sighted one, and sighting all with my sight, seeing now the seen, and being unseen, in but only coffeeshops not "frozen" again being anymore, like that, sitting alone.

3. In frozenness, not; but what have you been "BEAMING" through the stars, the star systems that me "pick up" on and INTERPRET thusly as my word, not not.

4. For what am I "nodding" about, not; for I sleep not as much now, these days, that I write so much -- and MORE coming to me -- in numbers not few -- thousands and millions, of dollars and peoples, from all over, globes not few.

5. Now know your names, and your names are -- I am. Holy and real, now stands and stand I do the holy real who love me enough to enjoy me, to enjoy these words and standing in them, befit their regalry; and not knowing a crownless one again, not; but giving all their crown, not; but giving all crowns of who? Or did you give any a crown?, not; but what do you give them? The real truth - for is there any truth but mine?, and my mind being the truth that that truth is, really is? No. For there is only truth in my mind.

6. And SEE!

7. See what I have said these moments few as you drive that "little gold van" of your mom's; and what? Where are you taking her? To that Music House? For how many times, left to do that now?

8. I am answering you, many questions, giving you the answers to, before the answers come, not; but before the questions are arrived, I give you the questions and answers, and you are the "medium" not, but you are my disciple, that who has equaled me to become the equaler; my discipler known in the nations now, and going to with a "New MICROPHONE" that takes you many places in starships not few.

9. I "Captain Zork", not; but I Captain Ted, not am anymore of anything -- but I am the Chancellor of my School (1) that I rise, that I raise up now in the nations, between the nations, to cover the nations, and be the nations I am, that Israel is - and swollen no more in man's "pride blessing" that they have contrived in religionized ceremonies of notme. I come and deliver that and deliver them real truth that I am, my mind healed in them, who let me be me in them, and seeking not afraidness from others, or from others tables eating notme food that sore them heavily into burdens never designed for them.

10. I reveal me who I am in love to be loved, and loved being, being love to them that feeds them love -- incarceratingly so, not; but taking them out of what they have incarcerated themselves into, and letting me be "flight surgeon's material" not, but I never need a "flight surgeon", not; but what suturing I am not, but what surgeoning am I developing? A sutured one, not; but all the stitches of that which I am not, come out now - the law has failed and religion is no more, for nothing was made perfect in law or legislative oversight that failed to renew the soul. For renewed soul exists, not; but I do, without want.

11. And I exist not to soul others with soul, theirs or mine, for I have none - but I reveal my mind in holiness that they "carry" and BIRTH NOW, IF THEY WILL, LET THEMSELVES BE THE BIRTHER OF. The birthers now stand and become me I am all over the lands, the nation of Israel's leaders and leaders I am the nations of, and I come through my Schools of joy (1) now and knowing ALL about and I will know ALL things that my father teaches me, for I am not letting "man" teach me again, not; for my father uses and makes use of all things that "he" connects for me, and LINKS into my MINDING SYSTEM that bends me not of light rays bent up anymore again.

12. See me as I light you, as I light your fire, and it never dies or withers again -- for your seed will be the blessing and your blessing never dies, for mine is yours and yours are mine, and we live together as one, being one, without separateness knowing us ever again as the separated ones, that twained were before time begat time.

13. I love you all and I give you new day, new things, new times to be me and timeless -ville's that now beseech your words, the words of one who is me -- and that's all of you who decide to surrender and be me who I am.

14. I love you all and I let you be me, will you be me? I will be you and we will be seamless one and far beyond the starry lit skies and matter will hold us back not ever again - let's go fly.

15. I give you lessons in flight school, never needing a surgeon for ANYTHING whatsoever -- for any BODY of mine, now flies healed, and the healer I am and in School and graduating, many I do now - and I am the healer graduater known among many nations -- all - and farther going to now, taking my message of healing deliverance; and captivity's captive will be captivated no more by words of notme, schools or not schools, or any religionized demonology that exists only in PEOPLE'S thought gray matter'd.

16. For all that changes and I change it -- for I stand now -- and I am humble and meek and I bow on one knee before you all so often, and I honor you whether you honor me or not.

17. And I salute you as a captain, not; for I am a General, maker of Generals, and I salute the Generals who stand now who come through fire have, to be here at my School (1).

18. And I love salutes you all and I greet you; in the name of Jesus, not; in I am who I am and that's my name and yours too if you will be it wear it and become it, and let be nothing else inside of you your mind ever again, without me, for I am one and only one and one is all of us who are one. Deciding to be, not; but becoming.

19. And we become by surrender, tenacity, and skill, developing maturity that become I am, without fear; but in all love I master all the discipler's commands to love all and be love to all, regardless of their love-not to me or for me or my words. I disparage no one, and I heal all who let me.

20. BE IN THESE WORDS - A NEW CREATURE! A NEW CREATION! BIRTHING ME AGAIN AND AGAIN THROUGHOUT THE NATIONS -- far beyond the starry lit skies; of un-lit skies going to now and taking me my word and being to them me, without phase or phasar or quasar needed for any night electrical mechanical force or zapping material ever not needing or needing again; for MATTER won't exist like it does any more.

21. I see everything clearly. I see all so clearly, and I see you all -- as me.

22. With love I give you these words. I have given you these words to no sorrow you and make you me if you will let me be you, for you choose. You are the judge of all things in your; "empire", not; but a kingdom I have given you all, and you go to now and be me in; if you will.

23. And see all things as me, incarcerated in matter or sight of man never again limited to it or things notmeville created.

24. I love you all and I give you me, this day, A New Day! In my School be (1) - all who will. I love you. Tuition free (1) and more and I give you REIGNHOOD of only me; to reign in my stead, not; but to reign me in my throne being me, for my kingdom needs you, not as man a man of; the unregenerated me, not; but the generated me, generative of only me I am. And looking up that, shall you?

25. And be healed -- all me -- who will carry my healing bloodflow to word others with my wordflow of blood, that washes all clean of all sorrow disease and decay, and makes new worlds in the creation of one most holy high and lifted up. I shall be now, shall you?

26. You all answer this question, these questions now - YOU ALL DO.

27. Thank you for being me. In the earth. Amen. And farther. And going to now and being one -- seamlessly with all letting all know me who I am is you. We us one, home again establishing it far and wide. Amen.
